September 28, 2016
Wednesday, 8:00 pm

As 64th and first female U.S. Secretary of State, Madeleine K. Albright reinforced U.S. alliances, advocated democracy and human rights and promoted our trade, business, labor and environmental standards. She chairs several boards in both public and government organizations, has written five New York Times best-sellers, and was awarded the U.S. Medal of Freedom – the nation's highest civilian honor – in 2012.

October 26, 2016
Wednesday, 8:00 pm

Appearing shortly before the Presidential election, Paul Begala will give us an insider's look at the 2016 campaign and what it all means going forward. Begala has consulted for political campaigns around the world and is a political commentator at CNN. Recently inducted into the American Assoc. of Political Consultants' Hall of Fame, Begala is affiliated Professor of Public Policy at Georgetown U. and a NYT best-selling author.

November 16, 2016
Wednesday, 8:00 pm

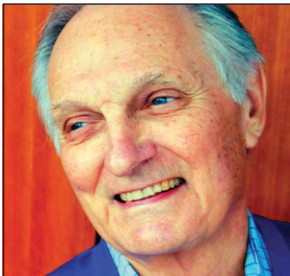

Award winning historian and best-selling author Michael Beschloss is the most widely recognized Presidential historian in the U.S. Emmy-winning contributor to NBC News and the PBS NewsHour, Beschloss will give us his perspective on the legacy of President Obama and thoughts on the incoming administration.

November 30, 2016
Wednesday, 8:00 pm

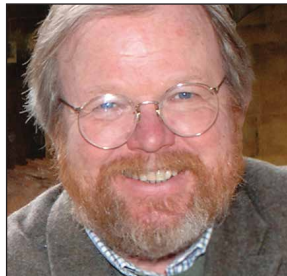

Award winning National Geographic photographer Paul Nicklen uses his camera to reveal the nature of the changing polar regions. As an interpreter and translator of what scientists say about environmental challenges, Nicklen grew up among the Inuits and developed a life-long interest in the wildlife and environment in which they live.

Wednesday, 8:00 pm

One of TIME Magazine's "100 Most Influential People" and author of the best-selling book Inferno, Ayaan Hirsi Ali founded the AHA Foundation to focus on violence against women and girls and to protect them from harmful traditional practices. Ali has boldly challenged centuries of theological orthodoxy believing that a revision of Islamic doctrine is at hand, making her a target of Islamic extremists.

February 1, 2017
Wednesday, 8:00 pm

Actor, writer, science advocate and director are just a few of Alan Alda's many job titles. Best known as Hawkeye Pierce on *M*A*S*H*, he has evolved as an activist for feminist and scientific causes, founding the Center For Communicating Science at Stony Brook University where he uses his expertise to help scientists communicate more effectively to the public.

March 1, 2017
Wednesday, 8:00 pm

Best-selling author Bill Bryson is one of the world's most beloved and prolific commentators, finding delight in the minutiae of travel and the subtleties of culture. He has chronicled everything from hiking the Appalachian Trail in the immensely popular A Walk in the Woods, named one of TIME Magazine's All-Time 100 Best Nonfiction Books, to capturing the nuances of being an American transplant in England.

April 5, 2017
Wednesday, 8:00 pm

Best-selling author of The Big Short and Moneyball, Michael Lewis combines keen insight with his signature wit, making him one of today's leading social commentators. Lewis takes a fresh, hard look at the ever-changing value systems that drive our economic markets, political landscapes, and cultural norms.
